PERRANTIDE

Upton, Bude

Perrantide is an exclusive new collection of nine luxury waterfront apartments just a stone's throw from the popular seaside town of Bude, North Cornwall, with commanding views out over the Atlantic Ocean.

With the nearest beach only one hundred metres away with sea and coastal views for 30 miles in both directions, each exceptionally high-specification apartment enjoys a rural aspect while still being very close to town.

These apartments are designed to be homes of the future. Each incorporates eco-friendly technology, sustainability, and security into their innovative design. High performance marine-grade Scandinavian windows and doors fitted with solar control glass, super fibre broadband, a super-airtight, highly energy-efficient design, and two allocated private courtyard parking spaces with provision for electrical vehicle charging are just a taste of their advanced features.

The nearby surfer's paradise of Bude has a good range of conveniences and a choice of independent shops, restaurants, and recreation, yet is small enough to retain its genuine Cornish charm.

It's the impressive design specification though – by award-winning RIBA Architect Van Ellen Sheryn – and uninterrupted, awe-inspiring ocean views that set Perrantide apart. The private terrace balcony of each apartment is the perfect place to enjoy this incredibly sought-after location, set out on fabulous walks along the wonderfully wild coastline, or explore the enviable lifestyle that Bude has to offer.

Life in and around Bude

Perrantide is set only one mile outside Bude, with superb views out across the Atlantic and down the coast towards Trevoze Head in the distance. Bude is a cheerful seaside town, named the Best UK Coastal Town in the British Travel Awards many times over and best known for its amazing beaches.

If you choose to take the stroll along the picturesque South-West Coast Path from Perrantide into town, you'll pass the viewing spot at Compass Point before hitting Bude's Crooklets and Summerleaze beaches. Both of these are golden, clean, and safe, rated Excellent according to European Standards.

Enjoy brilliant facilities like showers, beach cafes, and beach huts for hire at Crooklets before skipping across the sands at low tide for even more space down the long expanse of Summerleaze. You might also enjoy Bude's Sea Pool, a safe bathing spot that's part natural and part man-made.

But that's far from all Bude has to offer. The town has a great selection of home-grown local businesses, shops, and restaurants on top of its ocean vistas and sands.

Beyond the town itself, there is all of the rugged beauty of the South-West to explore. Dartmoor National Park, stunning villages like Boscastle, Port Isaac, and more are all only short distances away.

The charming villages of Cornwall

Take a trip to the pretty little cobbled streets of Clovelly and meet the donkeys who used to carry cargo (and tourists) up and down the completely pedestrianised paths. Visit historic Tintagel, one of the legendary homes of King Arthur. Experience with Padstow's delicious fresh seafood restaurants. Stop by the quaint fishing villages of Boscastle or Port Isaac. # A Perfect Lifestyle Choice

Bude is situated on the North coast of Cornwall near the border of Devon, just beside the Hartland Devon Heritage Coast, a dramatic peninsula of headlands and cliff paths.

The town of Bude is almost unique in that its selection of independent shops survives quite happily even outside of tourist season. It has all of the modern conveniences you might expect, including an Ofsted Good-rated local secondary, Budehaven Community School.

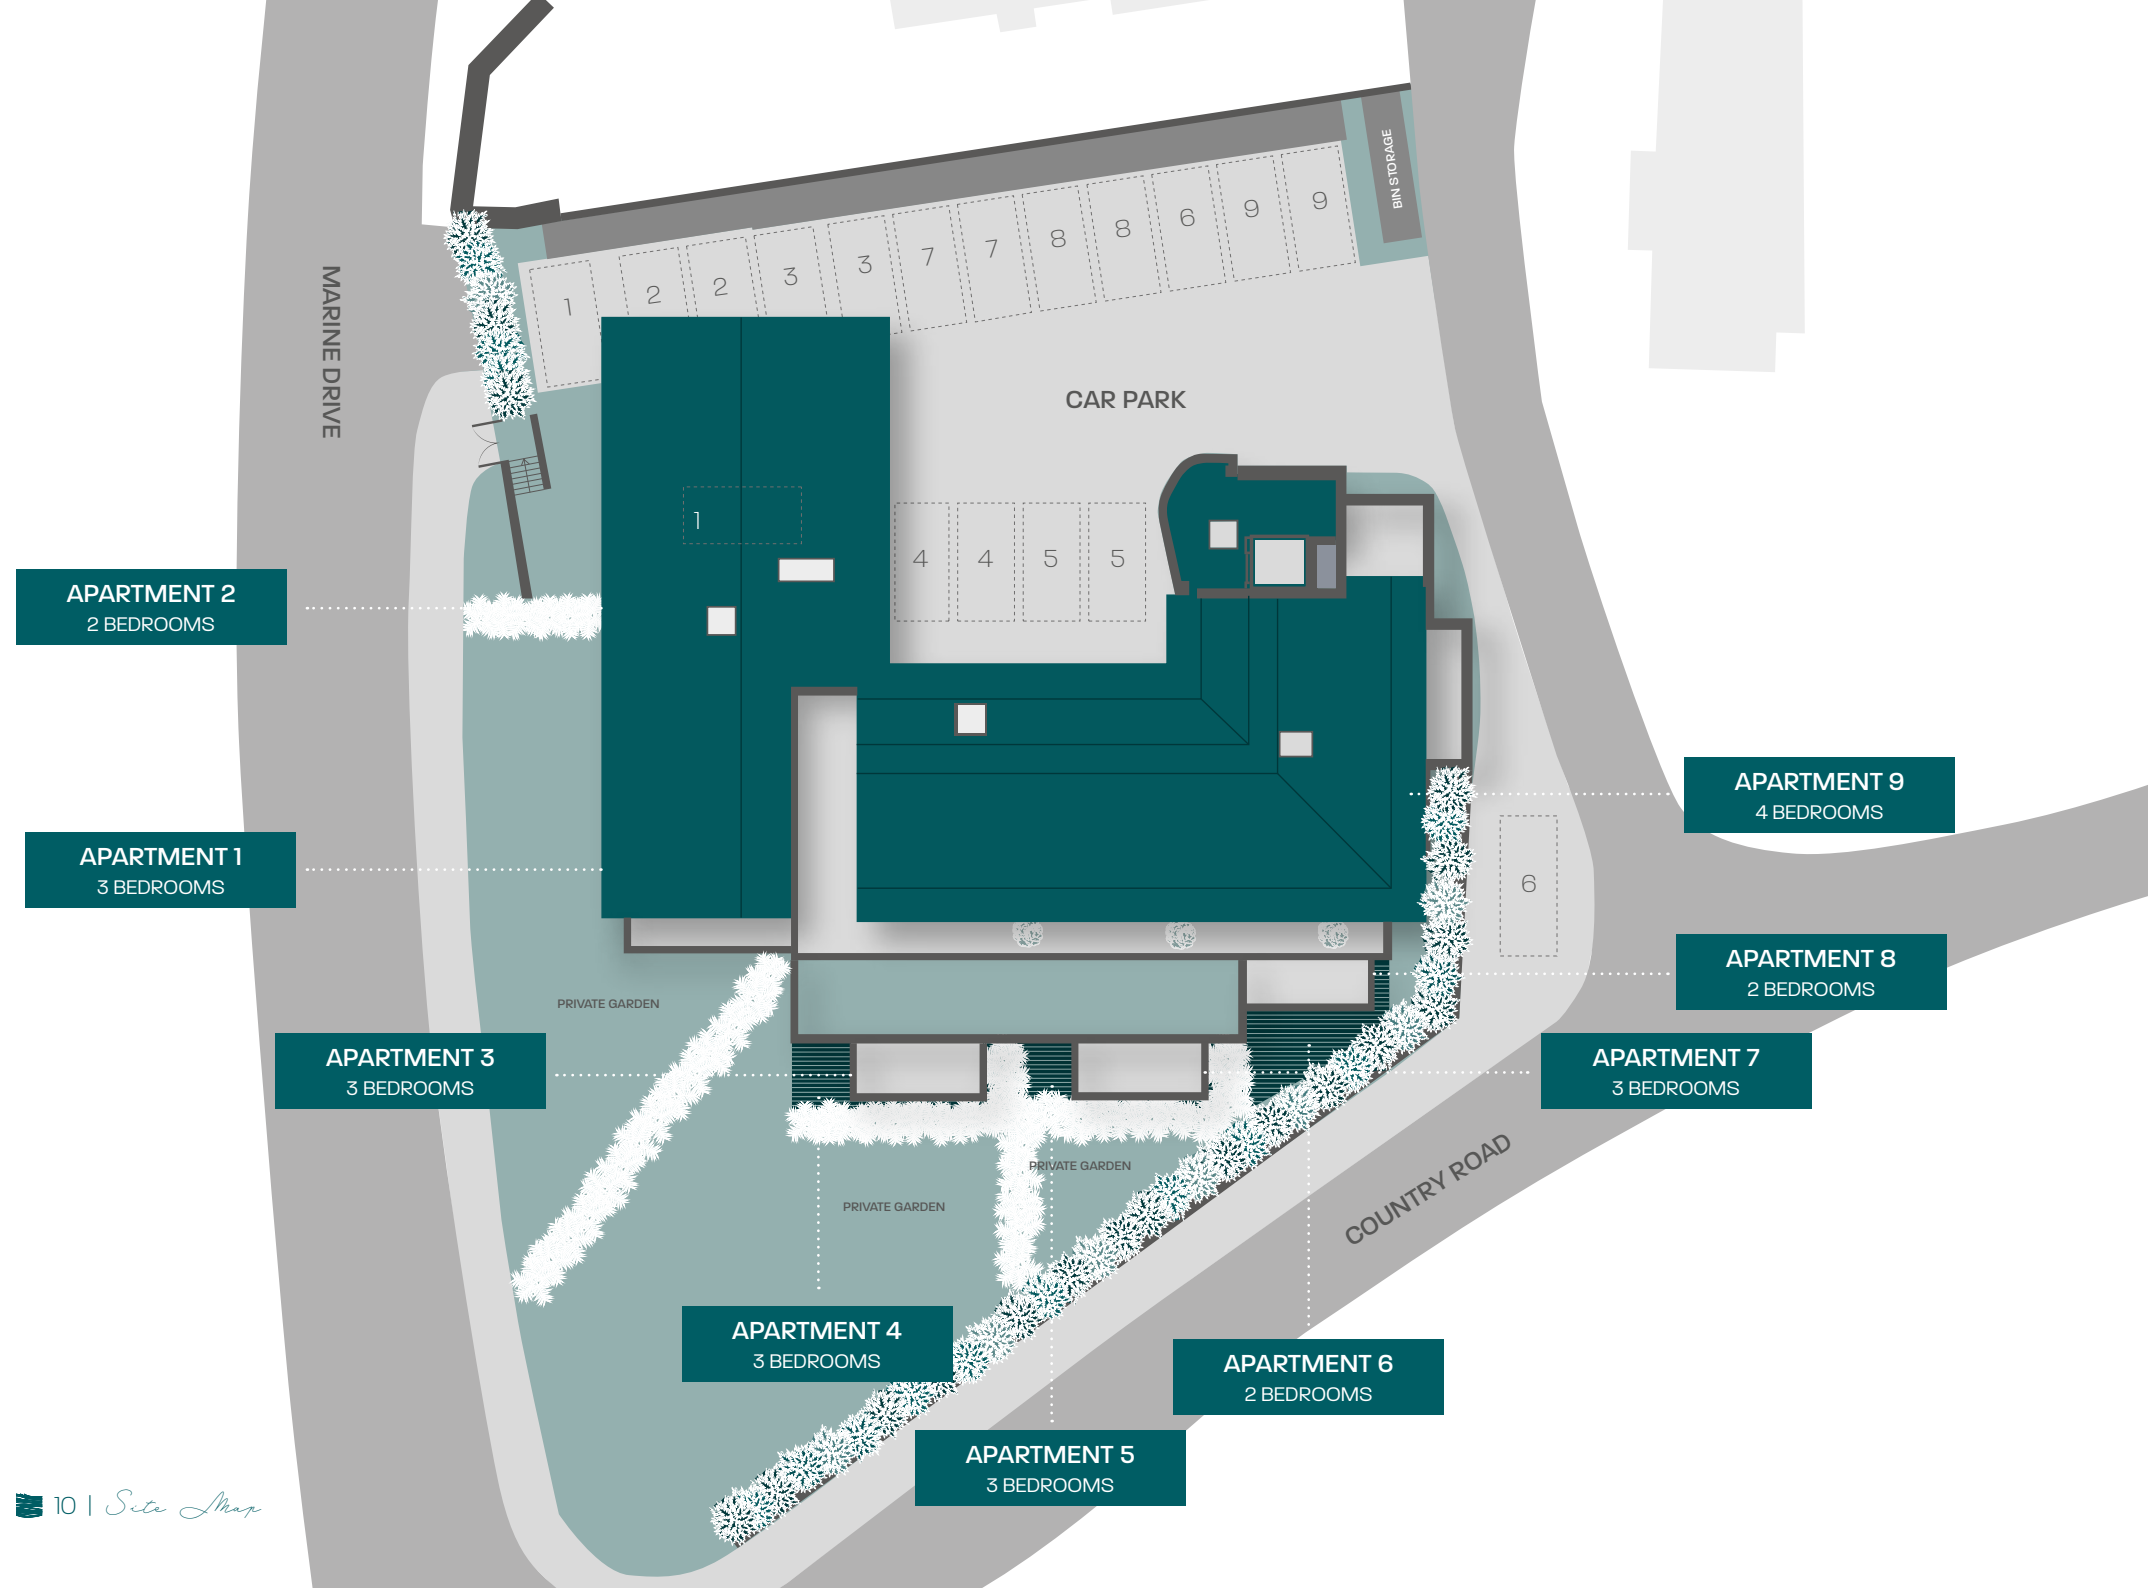

During the summer months, Bude attracts people who love watersports and adventure. Surfers, canoeists, and outdoors enthusiasts of all kinds flock to the town to taste the sights that locals enjoy all year round. With two beaches essentially starting in the town itself and extending both south and north, it's a destination surfers come from hundreds of kilometres away to visit.

Food lovers will enjoy Bude's collection of local restaurants, including The Beach with its outside decking and cocktails or the locally-sourced seafood of Life's a Beach. Keen walkers will love the immediate access to the Coastal Path, Hartland peninsula, and nearby Dartmoor National Park.

Every year, the Bude for Food Festival and Bude Jazz Festival add even more variety and life to an already rich selection of local options.
